

TEDxMAHE: Volume Seven

TEDxMAHE held its seventh edition recently. Speakers across various walks of life were invited to share their experiences and inspire students to explore different avenues. It was a great success, with audience members having had a great time learning so much about the journeys and struggles that made the speakers flourish in their respective fields.