

Spilled Ink #2

Spilled Ink – Art Series 2024

In the sacred lore of Hindu mythology, Navagunjara stands as a captivating enigma, a divine fusion of nine distinct creatures, captivating hearts and minds with its mystical allure. But amidst the whispers of ancient tales, one story emerges, weaving the intricate bond between Navagunjara and its devoted followers.

In the quiet depths of devotion, there exists a soul whose unwavering faith transcends the boundaries of the ordinary. Drawn to the radiant presence of Navagunjara, this devotee finds solace in the divine embodiment of multiplicity, recognizing in its form the unity that underpins the universe. Through countless prayers and reverent offerings, a sacred connection blooms, binding devotees and deities in a dance of mutual reverence and divine communion.

For the devotee, Navagunjara becomes more than a mythic entity; it becomes a guiding light, illuminating the path of spiritual awakening and self-realization. In Navagunjara's myriad forms, the devotee sees reflections of their own inner journey – a journey of self-discovery, transformation, and the pursuit of ultimate truth. With each encounter, the devotee is reminded of the boundless potential within, as Navagunjara whispers secrets of the cosmos, stirring the soul to soar to greater heights of consciousness.

Artwork by: Meenakshi Acharia

Caption by: Sanskriti Srivastava