

Pathway to Illinois Institute of Technology

Dr Shivakumar, a delegate of the Illinois Institute of Technology's India office, gave a talk on the registration and procedures regarding provisional admission for Master's courses in the university. The talk invited students of MIT interested in continuing their higher studies in the United States of America.